

Cindy Kent Promoted to Vice President/ Commercial Relationship Manager

Cindy Kent was recently awarded the corporate title of Vice President/Commercial Relationship Manager. The promotion is a well-earned and tangible affirmation of Cindy's value to Oregon Pacific Bank management and its clients.

Cindy is a native to the Roseburg area and has almost 35 years of related financial experience. She began her career as a bookkeeper for a small local sawmill and worked for a log trucking company. In 1993, Cindy began working in the Financial Planning Department in an area credit union. She became a registered Paraplanner through the College of Financial Planning, and obtained her Series 6 and 63 licenses. In 1999, she returned to school to pursue a degree in accounting. Graduating in 2004, she received her Bachelor of Science degree in Accounting (with a minor in Economics) from the University of Oregon.

Upon graduation, she began her commercial banking career at a local Bank.

Cindy Joined Oregon Pacific Bank in 2006 as a Commercial Loan Officer. She attended the ABA Graduate Commercial Lending School in 2007 and in 2008 was promoted to Assistant Vice President/Commercial Relationship Manager at Oregon Pacific Bank.

Jim Clark, Oregon Pacific Bank President and CEO, notes that Cindy's extensive knowledge makes her an integral part of the Oregon Pacific Bank team. "Cindy has been providing an extremely high level of client service and advocacy for our Bank in Roseburg for over five years and is truly the cornerstone of our local success. Her financial management experience, accounting education and unique understanding of complex business structure truly sets her apart from her peer group. She is a true asset to the Bank and to the communities we serve."
